0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Out of scope adviceBy Lauren S.Prologue provides advice on how to make the transition from doula to midwife, but does so by suggesting doulas practice things waaaaaay out of our scope such as assessing fetal position, taking blood pressure, using a fetoscope, etc. For the author to be someone with so much industry experience and credentials, I'm shocked. Also riddled with typos throughout. Editor should be fired. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. but how to run your doula business just like she does By Travis Owen This is not so much "skills" for a doula, but how to run your doula business just like she does. It has tips for random things to do, but not very many skills for a doula to use for a laboring woman. I am disappointed and feel misled by the title. I was looking to learn more skills as a doula, but found this to be more "skills for how to run a business as a doula" 6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. DESPERATELY NEEDS A COPY EDITOR! By Customer I really want to like this book, but the spelling, punctuation, and grammatical errors are so very distracting and really hurts the author's credibility.

If you are an experienced hospital doula here is your most valuable resource a guide to advanced skills, tips, tricks and techniques. Based on the belief that people become empowered through experiences which awaken within them the knowledge that they are strong, capable and wise; discover how a doula's actions from interview to last postpartum can increase the potential for this self discovery. Expand with business, marketing and social media skills Form healthy working partnerships Clear birth prejudices, prevent trauma and dive deeper with clients Utilize the hospital setting to your advantage Build knowledge about interventions, lactation, and remedies Learn about transitioning into a lactation consultant or midwife Combining facts, humor, and a grounded empowered voice, you'll find the skills taught invaluable, making it one of the most important labor companion books you'll ever read and recommend.

About the Author In addition to a B.S. and M.S. in Aerospace Engineering, Cassandra Jah has attained an A.S. in Midwifery from the National College of Midwifery. She started her birth career as a Supported Birth Doula and now is a Certified Professional Midwife, a Licensed Midwife, and an International Board Certified Breastfeeding Consultant. She is happily married to Moriba Jah and is the mother of Denali (who was born in a hospital with a doula) and Inara (who was born at home with midwives). Each of her births were earth shattering, life transforming, and completely empowering! Her greatest desire is for all women to recognize their own inner feminine strength.
