Ephraim Katz : Film Encyclopedia, 4e, The Macmillan International before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Film Encyclopedia, 4e, The Macmillan International:

This is the book Hollywood can't live without! Containing over 7000 entries, "The Macmillan International Film Encyclopedia" is well-written, user-friendly, and bursting with essential data, famous stories and fascinating trivia. This new edition contains entirely new material; the editors Fred Klein and Ronald Dean Nolan have updated every page, giving more thorough coverage to the 'independent film' scene and adding new entries for all of the most current stars and trends, from Paul Thomas Anderson (dir: "Boogie Nights", "Magnolia") to Hilary Swank (Oscar for "Best Actress: Boys Don't Cry") and Hollywood's biggest movie ever, "Titanic".

"Recommended for any reference collection in need of a world view of film." -- Booklist
"The best movie reference book, hands down." -- Newsweek
"The book for the film buff and the casual moviegoer... incredibly researched... a must for any film library." -- Jeffrey Lyons
"Wow! What a book!" -- Katharine Hepburn
About the Author
The Macmillan International Film Encyclopedia was the lifetime's work of Ephraim Katz. Much respected as a writer, journalist and film-maker, at the time of his death in 1992 he had revised most of the entries for the 3rd edition, with notes on the remainder that his film researchers were able to follow in order to complete the edition. Fred Klein and Ronald Dean Nolan are now carrying on that work.
