If you love Martin guitars and don't need the kind of technical details a luthier would want, you'll probably love this book. It's filled with glorious full color photos of a variety of custom, special, and antique/vintage Martins guaranteed to make a Martin lover salivate freely -- along with some fascinating anecdotes. Whether you own a Martin (or, if you're particularly lucky, Martins) or only dream of owning one some day, get this book. It's a beautiful tribute to works of art you can play.^{2 of 2} people found the following review helpful. Martin Guitar MasterpiecesBy Char 37This is a gift to my husband, must say he loved these. A self taught Luthier of bluegrass fiddles and long time owner of an "elderly" D28, he has been engrossed in this and several others purchased. Beautifully written and illustrated. A must for anyone that loves these fantastic instruments.^{2 of 2} people found the following review helpful. Absolutely gorgeous guitars, fascinating stories tooBy Silicon Valley GirlBought this for one of my husband's Christmas present...he's a Martin fanatic and we both looked through the beautiful book's photos of some of the most glorious examples of Martin guitar craftsmanship to ever leave shop. There are also full histories and facts about each guitar. Willie Nelson's beloved guitar is also in there too, really a must-see for any guitar fanatic. Just beautiful.

(Book). Martin guitars are internationally revered, collected and played by performers, singers, songwriters and by legions of avid collectors and enthusiasts. This book features more than a hundred of Martin's most desirable guitars, including instruments belonging to Bob Dylan, Willie Nelson, Joan Baez, Sting and Eric Clapton. Dick Boak enthusiastically outlines his experiences as liaison in these collaborations. We also get a sneak preview of Martin's millionth instrument, due in 2004. Dick Boak is the head of artist relations and publicity at C.F. Martin Co., collaborating with artists in the design of their Limited Edition and Signature Models. A prolific artist, luthier and musician in his own right, he is a founder of the Association of Stringed Instrument Artisans, and has organized numerous national instrument-making symposiums.
