Michael Pratt : Mid-Century Modern Dinnerware Design before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mid-Century Modern Dinnerware Design:

4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Comprehensive, well made and beautiful By Mara Gil Mid Century Dinnerware by Michel E. Pratt is beautiful book; (this is the first part, do not miss the second one). The pictures are great, the design is clean, it is a pleasure just browsing through it. It is a must-have for the dinnerware collector and highly recommended for anybody interested on mid century modern design or decor.

The bold shapes and startling patterns on dinnerware of the late 1940s, 1950s, and 1960s are displayed in over 480 dazzling color photographs. Much of the best work of six leading pottery manufacturers, Ak-Sar-Ben Pottery, Denwar Ceramics, Iroquois China Company, Laurel Potteries of California, Royal China Company, and Stetson China Company, is shown and described in detail. The dinnerware shapes, including Bantu, Casual, Futura, Holiday,

Impromptu, and Scandia, produced by these important manufacturers are well represented to attract collectors today. An engaging scholarly text is filled with new research about the companies and their wares, grading guidelines, informative tables, detailed endnotes, and an extensive bibliography. Current market values are provided in the captions. This dinnerware is an exciting gallery of mid-century design.

About the Author Michael Pratt has been collecting mid-century dinnerware for over a decade. His research of the companies, designers, and modern styles is on-going.
