

(Library ebook) My resume is perfect (I think)...so why didn't I get an interview?: Fast and easy guide for students and recent grads to write a resume that gets interviews! (I Think Career Skills)

My resume is perfect (I think)...so why didn't I get an interview?: Fast and easy guide for students and recent grads to write a resume that gets interviews! (I Think Career Skills)

Stacie Garlieb

*DOC | *audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub*

Download

Read Online

#4558511 in Books CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform 2010-02-18Original
language:EnglishPDF # 1 9.00 x .13 x 6.00l, .19 #File Name: 144995461854 pages | File size: 71.Mb

Stacie Garlieb : My resume is perfect (I think)...so why didn't I get an interview?: Fast and easy guide for students and recent grads to write a resume that gets interviews! (I Think Career Skills) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised My resume is perfect (I think)...so why didn't I get an interview?: Fast and easy guide for students and recent grads to write a resume that gets interviews! (I Think Career Skills):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great Read and Very HelpfulBy Jenny P.After reading this very helpful professional resume guide, I made an updated resume based off the advice of Stacie Garlieb and handed it out at my career fair. I received interview requests from every company I submitted my resume to and was very impressed with the knowledge I gained about resume writing and critiquing. I highly recommend this book, it is very quick and definitely worth your time.My interview skills are good (I think)...so why didn't I get a job offer?: Easy guide for students and recent grads to be ready for an interview that gets a job offer!My job offer negotiation skills are strong (I think)...so why didn't I get anything I asked for?: Easy guide for students and recent grads to evaluate and negotiate the details of a job offer!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Review of My Resume is Perfect...I ThinkBy Anat HazanchukThis was my favorite book out of the series. It helped me update my resume to fit the internship and part-time jobs I was applying for. It made my resume stand out to employers and I was given interviews for every company that I applied to! This book makes writing a resume easy and is much easier to follow than all the other resume books! Very insightful!Check these books out as well:My job offer negotiation skills are strong (I think)...so why didn't I get anything I asked for?: Easy guide for students and recent grads to evaluate and negotiate the details of a job offer!My interview skills are good (I think)...so why didn't I get a job offer?: Easy guide for students and recent grads to be ready for an interview that gets a job offer!0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A simple, helpful reference!By NancyIt can feel overwhelming when faced with the task of writing a resume but not if you use this book. For people that are looking for step-by-step instruction and explanation, this is a great place to start.If you've gained some work experience and hope to take your resume to the next level, check out Stacie Garlieb's related guide for people with over 5 years of experience. It is the perfect complement.My resume is great (I think)...so why didn't I get an interview?: Fast and easy guide for people with 5+ years of professional work experience to write a resume that gets interviews!

You had your parents review your resume, your best friend's looks terrible compared to yours, and you got a job at a local restaurant part-time with it, so why aren't you getting interviews with employers that have internship, part-time, and post-graduation opportunities? Recruiters, HR managers, and hiring managers spend hours and hours reviewing resumes, so how can you make yours let them know you are a great candidate and they should interview you? Whether you are a current student or recent graduate, this book gives you key points, easy formats, and 'stand out' tips for a great resume. Find out what makes a difference between a bad and good resume - straight from recruiters and managers who hire people everyday! February 2011 updated version

About the AuthorStacie Garlieb is the President of Successful Impressions, LLC. which assists collegiates and recent graduates with career search processes and skills. She has been featured several times on NBC television and KFYZ radio during morning and evening news with interview tips. In partnership with University of Phoenix, Stacie is the creator and presenter for the 'Career Workshop Series' on resume building, interview preparation, interview skills, social media networking, and 're-careering' and transition in the workforce. Stacie is a well-known national speaker who has presented on various career skills topics at events such as Build Your Career Event (Career Builder/University of Phoenix), Arizona Womens Expo, American Marketing Association International Conference (2010, 2011), Jobs for AZ Graduates Career Development Conference (2010, 2011), Reinvent Your Future 2010, Devlink Technical Conference, and multiple corporate team development sessions. Her career search tips and interview skills advice have been published in collegiate, national sorority, and alumni publications, and she is currently also featured as an expert as the Phoenix Career Transition Examiner at examiner.com and as the Career Planning Expert for College Expert Panel. As the author of the Career Search Skills Series books available on and in college bookstores, she collaborated with other hiring managers to create generation specific guides to help people navigate the job search process. Through group presentations and one-on-one coaching on all career search related topics, she has worked with public and private college students nationally since 1991. Stacie was invited by California State Sacramento and University of the Pacific to act as a Career Consultant to the career services departments. She developed the Career Fair Training Program for University of the Pacific, and assisted in writing the "Career Services Interview Skills" guide. Over more than twenty years, she has worked for Fortune 500 organizations in sales, marketing, and management positions with recruiting responsibility after earning her Bachelor of Science from Arizona State University.